THE NATURAL ADVANTAGES OF PHŒNIX AND THE VALLEY. How a Visiting Editor Regards Our Future Words of Encouragement and a Tribute to Our Possibilities.

From the Tombstone Prospector.

The Salt River Valley is spoken of as a part of Arizona which will support a city in the future of no small size. That city is to be Phoenix. This is the fondest hope of the settlers in the Capital City and further than this they have not looked. To a close observer of what is transpiring in our Territory and the boundless resources of our undeveloped mountains and valleys, much more importance is attached to the embryo metropolis than to those who have settled down to wait for the incoming tide. The mist of uncertainty which obscures the future of Arizona is lifting slowly but surely, and through it is to be seen a vision which should awake the Rip Van Winkles from their slumbers. There is but one city to each State and not to recognize this fact is to overlook one of the prime factors in a country's growth. That Phoenix is to be the city of Arizona should create no jealous feeling in the breasts of those who would have it otherwise.

San Francisco, as the big city of California, has grown in spite of the backsets and barriers that other small towns in the Golden State have raised against her; had the little fish turned to help the parent when she needed their assistance she would not have been the tenth city in the Union and they would needed their have outgrown their minor stage of existence. The lesson has been taught us by California and Arizona should profit by the lesson.

In the first place we want all of the produce raised in the Salt River Valley

The fact sold to consume at home. The fact stares us in the face that barley selling for 60 cents per hundred and hay at $4 per ton (prices at Pheenix), can not be moved owing to the cost of transporta-tion, while carloads of the same product are shipped in from California 1000 miles away and landed at our doors 100 miles from where the grancries are groaning with the weight of their un-profitable product of labor.

This state of affairs which the illus-tration cited is but one of many, must cease before Arizona can prosper. It affects not only the immediate sections

ARIZONA REPUBLICAN, where the facts are stern ones, but every non-agricultural section of Arizona as well. The merchant would go under in any community who could not sell his goods to the consumers in his own secgoods to the consumers in his own sec-tion. A newspaper could not exist where merchants advertised in papers out of town and procured their printed matter in some distant city. Neither can Arizona expect to prosper by send-ing the money dug from the earth to exchange for products not raised at

When there is sickness in the family we apply a remedy at the seat of the lisease, and the condition of Arizona

today calls for a radical remedy. Phœnix has alone and single handed without assistance from any of her satellites, sought a remedy. Cheaper transportation will alone solve the problem. A railroad which shall give us a medium for the exchange of products will build Arizona into a fit subject for statehood. A north and south road is just as much a necessity for the border counties as it is for the welfare of central Arizona. A community is short sighted which can and will not aid in every way possible in making the time as short as practicable when Arizona can boast of one city and a common interest in its welfare.

A fast express connecting with the Southern Pacific leaves El Paso and Deming, early each afternoon, making the run to Rincon, and from Wallace to La Junta, by day light, arriving at Kansas City evening of second day and Chicago morning of third day after departure. This train carries Pullman palace sleepers from El Paso to Kansas City, and Los Angeles, to Chicago, with Pullman tourist sleepers, Los Angeles to Kansas City, making direct connection at La Junta, for Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver. And at Burton, for St. Louis via "the Frisco line," which is now a part of the Santa Fe system, an additional Pullman sleeper is attached at Las Vegas, running through without change to Denver via Trinidad and La Junta.

"The Santa Fe route" aims by its fast time, fine equipment and reasonable rates to merit the patronage of the trav-eling public. For further information address C. H. Morehouse, D. F. & P. A., El Paso, Texas.

The Republican Central Committee of Pinal county, met on August 9 and selected the following named gentlemen as delegates to the Territorial Conven-tion: Wm. R. Stone, A. J. Doran, Florence; Chas. "Mark Twain" has made the discovery that, whereas lecturers always affect to have a sober end in view, which can be best reached by sugar coating their bolus of ripe thought with a paste of illustra-tive anecdotes, their real aim is to tell as many good stories as they have time to narrate, letting the professed subject matter of the address serve merely as a thread on which to string them.
